CONFIDENTIAL REPORT

8/8/77 - Phone call from [REDACTED] requesting a meeting with the Council Executive.

11:15 A. M. - [REDACTED] and her son [REDACTED] visited Council Office and gave Council Executive report of trip to Nova Scotia. (About same as attached copy of Genesee County Sheriff's Department Supplementary report and voluntary statement by [REDACTED] dated 8/9/77)

8/9/77 - 11:15 A. M. - Council Executive talked with Genesee County Sheriff Roy J. Wullich (who is also District Chairman and Member of Executive Board) about the report from [REDACTED] and her son [REDACTED]

Sheriff Wullich agreed to investigate and assigned Undersheriff R. J. Sheldon and Deputy Sheriff John P. Wilcox to the case.

2:30 P. M. - The Undersheriff interviewed [REDACTED] and her son [REDACTED] (Report attached) and obtained voluntary statement from [REDACTED] (attached).

8/18/77 - Sheriff Wullich met with Council Executive and District Executive Stanley Waters at Council Office and reviewed reports.

Sheriff and two Executives agreed that Lamkin should be invited to meet with Sheriff and Council Executive at Council Office.

8/19/77 - Council Executive phoned Lamkin and requested that he stop at the Council Office for a conference.

1:30 P. M. - LaVerne Lamkin arrived at Council Office and was ushered to Council Executives Office for meeting with Council Executive and Sheriff.

Lamkin was given copy of offence report, supplementary report and voluntary statement prepared by the Sheriff's Department.

Lamkin admitted allowing [REDACTED] to drive car even though he was under-age. He also admitted taking Playboy magazines and wine on the trip which he made available to the 3 boys.

He stated that he was asleep and must have been dreaming in regards to playing with [REDACTED] privates.

Sheriff Wullich explained to Lamkin that [REDACTED] had placed no formal charges against Lamkin at present and presented two options:

- (1) Resign from the Boy Scouts of America or
- (2) If he did not resign, the case would be investigated further.

Lamkin turned in resignation (copy attached).
